

BIO

Born in Chicago, Barbara Grad received her BFA and MFA from the School of the Art Institute of Chicago. An accomplished artist, Grad is a Professor Emeritus at Massachusetts College of Art and Design. Recent solo exhibitions include the Howard Yezerski Gallery, Boston, MA, The Kemper Museum of Contemporary Art, Kansas City, MO, and The Danforth Museum of Art, Framingham, MA. and Findlay Galleries in Palm Beach, FL. Her work is in various private and public collections, including the Kemper Museum of Contemporary Art, the Art Institute of Chicago, the Danforth Museum of Art, Fidelity Investments, and Wellington Management, Grad's many honors include grants, awards from the National Endowment for the Arts, Massachusetts Foundation and Cultural Council Grants, New England for the Arts NEA, MassArt Foundation, the Ballinglen Arts Foundation, Ireland, and the Jentel Foundation. The artist currently lives and works in Wayland, Massachusetts.